

PG Retreat Statement of Expectations

PG Retreat is a gathering of families of Profoundly Gifted kids for the purpose of exchanging knowledge and understanding as well as creating shared experiences. For this gathering to be a positive experience for everyone, there are certain values that all family members are expected to support.

- 1) We recognize and value our diversity and differences whether religious, ethnic, social, intellectual, learning styles, sensitivities or other beliefs or characteristics.
- 2) We will conduct ourselves in ways that create a welcoming and safe environment.
- 3) We welcome new members and help them integrate into PG Retreat.
- 4) We always engage each other with empathy and respect
- 5) We look out for each other and speak up when we see behavior that does not support our values.
- 6) We accept responsibility for our own behavior (and for adults, that of any minors in our family group including those we are sponsoring).
- 7) We volunteer where and when we are able to support PG Retreat.
- 8) We respect the property and rules of the facilities in which we gather, making sure that our family members are aware of both the facility and the PG retreat rules.
